

NETWORK OF ASPIRING WOMEN :

The Serious Businesswomen's Network

STRATFORD LAUNCH

If you are a woman serious about growth, join us for the complimentary introduction into what the network can bring to you.

Date : Wednesday 7th December 2011

Times : 09:00 – 11:00

Venue : Shakespeares Legal LLP, Stratford Upon Avon

This network is new, vibrant and exciting. It's been created by former Apprentice and well-known business woman Jo Cameron of www.jocameron.co.uk and www.networkofaspiringwomen.com. Its primary aim is to connect women who are serious about going places and have lofty ambitions.

Like nothing else out there, this group of women will keep you going when you feel like giving up and encourage you to stretch your ambitions and intentions even further. It's for women who are happy now but want more in the future.

But it's also about the connections that are made. These will happen as a matter of course, nothing forced, nothing pushed, just organically doing business together as you get to know and trust each other.

"The group provides a great network to share ideas and ask advice on business issues. I look forward to our meetings each month."

Sophie Howe, Director,

"NOAW is a fabulous forum to meet inspiring and successful business women to share ideas for business growth. It is a welcoming group where you feel comfortable raising business issues in a relaxing and supportive environment. I treat this as my morning for business therapy."

Sandra Garlick
De Marco Hunter Solicitors
